

Brock Clay Legal Assistant, Jan Curtis, sworn in as President of Cobb County Legal Secretaries Association

Jan Curtis received the gavel from Courtney Jantzer, CCSLA immediate Past President.

On April 23, 2010 the Cobb County Legal Secretaries Association (CCLSA) installed Jan Curtis of Brock, Clay, Calhoun & Rogers, LLC as President for 2010-2011. The gavel of President was passed during the organization's Annual Bosses Night Banquet. The event was emceed by Cobb County Bar Association President Nancy Ingram Jordan, also of the firm Brock Clay.

Curtis stated, "I feel fortunate to work with a firm that supports my civic involvement. During this year, CCLSA is going to continue our support of our membership as well as our community outreach."

"Jan has shown great leadership with the legal secretaries' organization," said Managing Member Scott Gregory. "We are grateful for her dedication to CCLSA and to the many other groups she supports in Cobb County"

As President, Curtis will oversee the agenda for the organization, whose purposes included providing professional and personal development opportunities for legal support professionals in Cobb County.

CCSLA Officers (l-r) Donna Durrett, Parliamentarian; Lisa Cantrell , Membership Director; Elaine Bentley, Treasurer; Karen Caldwell , Vice President; Jan Curtis , President

Curtis has been involved with CCLSA since 2003 and has served as an executive committee member since 2008. In addition to CCLSA, she has been active with American Cancer Society's Swordsman's Ball, the Center for Family Resources and Cobb Junior League. She is also a member at First Baptist Church of Marietta.

“Jan exemplifies the commitment we have as a firm to our community,” continued Gregory.

Ms. Curtis is a graduate of Shorter College in Rome, holds a Paralegal Certificate from Kennesaw State University and has been a member of the Brock Clay team since 2003, where she has worked with attorneys Chuck Dalziel, Chuck Clay and Joseph Alonso.

Brock Clay members attend CCSLA Bosses Night Gala and recognize two as officers. Back Row: George Kleeman, Chuck Dalziel, Virginia Wiggins, Dan Wirth, Brian Noyes. Front Row: Chuck Clay, Cindee Epperson, Jan Curtis, Nancy Ingram Jordan, Donna Durrett